FORGETTING THINGS AT THE DOOR

Weather Pocket

Pick the weather, pack the right things before you leave.

Every morning, adults who commute or go to school notice a missing item right at the entrance. It is a small problem, but it happens a lot.

- The hardest moment is at the door: "Oh no, I forgot it!"

Tap the weather, see your list

You choose today's weather with one button. The checklist changes to match, so you can check each item before you leave.

- Four weather buttons: Sunny, Cloudy, Rain, Cold
- Basic items stay: keys, wallet, phone, commuter pass
- Weather items are added with a blue badge, like an umbrella
- Tap items to check them. A bar shows how many are left

A calmer start to your day

Weather Pocket helps you leave home with what you need. It has a warm, pastel notebook look that feels friendly.

- Less stress in the morning, fewer forgotten things
- Your list is saved on your device, and you can reset the checks
- Works in Japanese and English
- Next idea: add more fun touches to the checklist
